BE IT ENACTED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this act may be cited as the “Religious Freedom and Civil Marriage Equality Amendment Act of 2009”.

Sec. 2. Chapter Forty-Three of An Act To establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1391; D.C. Official Code § 46-401 passim), is amended as follows:

(a) A new section 1283a is added to read as follows:

“Sec. 1283a. EQUAL ACCESS TO MARRIAGE.—

“(a) Marriage is the legally recognized union of 2 people. Any person who otherwise meets the eligibility requirements of sections 1283 (D.C. Official Code § 46-401), 1284 (D.C. Official Code § 46-402), and 1285 (D.C. Official Code § 46-403) may marry any other eligible person regardless of gender. Each party to a marriage shall be designated “bride,” “groom,” or “spouse.”

“(b) Where necessary to implement the rights and responsibilities relating to the marital relationship or familial relationships, gender-specific terms shall be construed to be gender neutral for all purposes throughout the law, whether in the context of statute, administrative or court rule, policy, common law or any other source of civil law.”.

(b) Section 1288 (31 Stat. 1392; D.C. Official Code § 46-406), is amended by adding new subsections (c), (d) and (e) to read as follows:

“(c) No priest, minister, imam, or rabbi of any religious denomination and no official of any nonprofit religious organization authorized to solemnize marriages, as defined in this section, shall be required to solemnize any marriage in violation of his or her right to the free exercise of religion guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

“(d) Each religious organization, association, or society has exclusive control over its own religious doctrine, teachings, and beliefs regarding who may marry within that particular religious tradition’s faith, as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

“(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a religious organization, association or society, or a nonprofit organization which is operated, supervised, or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, shall not be required to provide services, accommodations, facilities or goods for a purpose related to the solemnization or celebration of a marriage, or the promotion of marriage, that is in violation of the entity’s religious beliefs, unless the entity makes such services, accommodations, or goods available for purchase, rental, or use to members of the general public. Any refusal to provide services, accommodations, facilities or goods in accordance with this section shall not create any civil claim or cause of action, or result in any District action to penalize or withhold benefits from such entity, unless such entity makes such services, accommodations, facilities, or goods available for purchase, rental, or use to members of the general public.”.

Sec. 3. Section 3 of the Health Care Benefits Expansion Act of 1992, approved June 11, 1992 (D.C. Law 9-114, D.C. Official Code § 32-702), is amended as follows:

(a) The ability to register a new domestic partnership in subsection (a) shall sunset as of January 1, 2011.

(b) A new subsection (j) is added to read as follows:

“(j) (1) Two persons in a valid domestic partnership pursuant to this act may apply for and receive a marriage license, and shall not be charged a marriage license fee, provided that the parties are eligible to marry pursuant to sections 1283 (D.C. Official Code § 46-401), 1284 (D.C. Official Code § 46-402), and 1285 (D.C. Official Code § 46-403) of An Act To establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1391; D.C. Official Code § 46-401 et seq.).

“(2) A domestic partnership shall be dissolved by operation of law as of the date of the marriage stated on the certificate obtained pursuant to this section.”.

Sec. 5. Effective date.
